THE TRIAL OF HOLMES.

Sensational Scenes in Judge Arnold's Court at Philadelphia.

HOLMES CONDUCTS HIS OWN CASE.

While Sparring for a Postponement the Prisoner Dismisses His Counsel, Who Will be Punished for Contempt for Withdrawing from the Case.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 29.—The trial of H. H. Holmes, the notorious insurance swindler and alleged murderer of a number of persons in various parts of the country, who was indicted here for the murder of Benjamin F. Pitezel in this city in the summer of 1894, began before Judge Arnold in the court of oyer and terminer. The prosecution is conducted by District Attorney George S. Graham, assisted by Thomas W. Barlow as special counsel. William A. Shoemaker and Samuel P. Rotan were counsel for the defense.

Mr. Shoemaker then asked for a continuance of the case. He urged lack of time, which had hampered the preparation of the defense. "There are three homicide cases involved in this case," he urged, "and we have had only as much time as would be adequate preparation on one." Evidence he continued, to be obtained not only from distant points in this country, but also from abroad, the defense had been unable to procure in the short space of time left to them since the finding of the indictment. The prosecution had been working on its case for 300 days, while the defense had had but sixty. Under these circumstances he felt justified in asking for a continuance of sixty days to give them an opportunity to gather their witnesses. Many of these would present newly discovered evidence of such vital importance that Holmes would undoubtedly be acquitted of this charge.

Mr. Graham vigorously opposed a postponement, and Mr. Rotan as strongly urged it. After listening to the arguments Judge Arnold denied the motion for a continuance.

Mr. Shoemaker and Mr. Rotan then created a stir by saying in turn to the court that if the judge's decision was irrevocable they would withdraw from the case, but Judge Arnold declared that a member of the bar who would withdraw from a murder case on the eve of its trial would be called upon to show cause why he should not be disbarred for unprofessional conduct.

Judge Arnold then ordered the empanelling of a jury. One juror had been admitted by the commonwealth when there was another sensation. Holmes arose in the dock, and in a high quavering voice said to Judge Arnold:

"May it please the court, I have no inclination to continue with the trial of this case with Mr. Rotan and Mr. Shoemaker as my counsel, feeling that, in view of their desire to withdraw, my interests would be damaged. I therefore discharge them as my counsel."

"You cannot discharge them, Holmes," answered Judge Arnold. "That is for the court, and if they withdraw from this case they will be punished."

"If," continued Holmes, his tones still more trembling "if your honor will give me until tomorrow to secure additional counsel—"

"We will have no more debate, Mr. Holmes. The matter is decided."

The examination of jurors was about to proceed when Mr. Shoemaker again arose and stated that the prisoner absolutely forbade them from representing him in the case, and declared that he (Holmes) would examine the jurors and witnesses himself.

Judge Arnold said he would permit Holmes to question the jurors if he so desired.

Then Holmes himself took up the examination of jurors, and peremptorily challenged the first one. The second one he accepted.

At this juncture Messrs. Rotan and Shoemaker declared that they felt obliged to withdraw from the case regardless of consequences.

"You must take the consequences, then," said the judge, and the two lawyers, without further ado, left the court room.

The services of Everett J. Schofield and J. M. Fahy, young members of the bar, were offered to Holmes, but he refused their services, and asked for a day's postponement in order that he might see Mr. R. O. Moon. The judge, however, again refused a postponement, and Holmes resumed his cross examination of talesmen, showing marked ability.

Finally, shortly before noon, a jury was selected, as follows: Foreman, Andrew Hertel, shoemaker; Robert Chambers, carter; Robert J. Kincade, florist; Samuel Wood, manufacturer; Richard Johnson, painter; Lewis Reese, farmer; William P. Hansell, wagon builder; James Kenney, foreman; Linford Biles, paymaster; Thomas Sloan, driver; John J. Smith, engineer; George D. Clash, soap maker.

After a two hours' recess District Attorney Graham began his opening address to the jury. He declared that he had convincing proof that Holmes had murdered Benjamin F. Pitezel.

At the conclusion of Mr. Graham's address Holmes addressed the court, asking that he be allowed to have a lighted cell during the evening and night; that he be provided with writing materials, and that he be allowed to see his wife—the one known in this case as Miss Yobe. The district attorney declared that the woman declined to see him, and it was finally arranged that he should write to her. Judge Arnold promised the prisoner all the opportunities he required in preparing his defense.

Bombs in Wisconsin's Capitol Yard.

MADISON, Wis., Oct. 29.—Madison is excited over the discovery of two bombs in the capitol yard, near the entrance most used by the public, and one in the yard of H. J. Veerhusen, of the tailoring firm of Olsen & Veerhusen, whose employes went on strike recently. The police claim to have gained information which leads them to belief that the bombs were manufactured and left in the places where they were found by friends of the strikers.

Need of New Dry Docks.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 29.—Now it appears that even the Texas, a second class battleship, cannot be docked at New York without waiting for a big tide. She drew too much water to be docked at Norfolk. This has caused some speculation among naval officers as to what would occur if the ship met with an accident at sea and came into port in a sinking condition.

SENSATIONAL MURDER TRIAL.

Attracting Visitors to France from All Parts of Europe.

BOURGES, France, Oct. 29.—The trial of the Marquis de Nayve upon the charge of murdering the illegitimate son of his wife began here in the cher assizes yesterday. The case is a sensational one, and is attracting widespread attention. The court room was crowded, the gathering including visitors from every country in Europe and a number from America. The wife declares that the murder occurred in the Bay of Naples in 1885. She made the charge fifteen months ago, and since then he has been kept in solitary confinement most of the time.

The marquis was wild in his young days, dissipated a large fortune and then married a rich heiress, Mlle. Marie de Bautreuil, who had an illegitimate son. This boy the marquis is charged with murdering by throwing him from the cliffs along the Sorrente road into the Bay of Naples after having previously stunned the boy by hitting him over the head with a heavy instrument. The marquis' friends assert that the lad, who was of a despondent nature, committed suicide by jumping from the cliffs, and that the marquise had concocted the story to rid herself of her husband, in order that she might marry a priest who had been the boy's tutor, if not his father.

The city is full of strangers from every country in Europe, and also present are some persons from America, who have come to witness the trial.

His first acknowledged volume of verse "The Season a Satire," appeared in 1861. Since then he has published many poetic productions, political and controversal works. The work which last brought him into prominence was a prose work entitled "The Garden That I Love."

Frank Hyatt Smith, pastor of the North Avenue church, Cambridge, before the United States circuit court to answer to indictments for alleged misuse of the mails in sending scurrilous postal cards to members of his church, has been postponed until Monday, Nov. 4. The friends of Mr. Smith representing, it is said, one faction of his church, which has become divided upon the question whether he should remain pastor or not, have rallied to his support and will assist him financially in fighting his case. Mr. Smith furnished $3,000 bail.

Guarding Rev. Mr. Hoeffer.

GREENVILLE, O., Oct. 29.—The congregation and the neighbors of Rev. G. W. Hoeffer, Republican candidate for the legislature, believe him to be the victim of a nefarious plot. Five men are guarding his house and preventing all ingress except of most intimate friends. Four men are with him in the house writing letters to members of his congregation and to other friends explaining the situation. One man has offered $100 reward for an identification of the boy that brought the powders at midnight to Rev. Mr. Hoeffer, but he has not been found.

Wanted Only $317,000,000.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 29.—C. B. Mangum, a middle aged crank who claims to come from the state of Washington, called at the treasury department and the interstate commerce commission and presented claims for large sums against the government, and at the former he demanded that Treasurer Morgan pay him $317,000,000 for loss of gold which he said he had sustained by the sinking of the steamer Victoria. At the interstate commerce commission office he reduced this claim to $100,000,000. He was taken into custody by the police.

Griffo Holds His Own with Dixon.

NEW YORK, Oct. 29.—George Dixon never had a harder fight than that put up against him last night by Young Griffo, before the Manhattan Athletic club. # M. RIBOT'S RESIGNATION.

The French Premier and His Ministry Retire to Private Life.

A ROW OVER RAILROAD SCANDALS

Precipitated the Present Ministerial Crisis. The Government Charged with Laxity in Punishing Swindlers—President Faure Promptly Accepts the Resignations.

PARIS, Oct. 29.—In the chamber of deputies yesterday M. Rouanet, who has been prominent in exposing those who were connected with the Panama canal and Southern railroad syndicates, questioned the government regarding the South of France railroad scandal, it being alleged that a number of senators, deputies and others have made large profits out of the company by fair or unfair means. He declared that the good repute of parliament was involved and asked for explanations as to the partiality which had been shown towards those involved in the scandals, claiming that the authorities had been afraid to prosecute them because the deputies and senators involved with the late Baron Reinach, of Panama canal fame, had disposed of 8,850,000 francs in devious ways, and he demanded that the minister of justice, M. Trarieux, publish the documents in the case which were in his possession and which would throw light on the subject.

M. Binder, a member of the Right, then charged the minister of justice with culpable leniency, and demanded that the guilty parties be punished.

M. Trarieux replied, denying that he had long had in his possession documents which required the arrest of M. Edmond Magnier, formerly senator of the Var, and recently editor in chief of The Evenement, who was recently sentenced to a year's imprisonment for having received part of the profits of the syndicate. Continuing the minister of justice said that whenever the government believed it had incriminating evidence it had prosecuted the parties involved. No deputy, he added, was included among the guilty parties.

Amid continual Radical interruptions M. Trarieux managed to say in addition that several names were known to the government as having figured in the report of the expert, M. Flory, who made an inquiry into the finances of the South of France railroad. He was interrupted by excited cries for names.

In reply M. Trarieux said: "Rouvier, Jules Roche, Etienne, Delaude, Bardoux and others."

When he was able to make himself heard the minister of justice added that the majority of those whose names had been mentioned had explained their position, and he concluded with the remark:

"The chamber knows the truth, and if parliament considers its dignity and honor compromised the government will join the chamber in voting for repressive measures, and in the face of these explanations asks the chamber for a vote of confidence."

The order of the day, pure and simple, was then submitted to the chamber and rejected by a vote of 400 to 105.

M. Haberts then moved that the chamber agree to prohibit members of parliament from joining in financial syndicates. The motion was accepted by the premier, M. Ribot, and was adopted unanimously.

Later M. Rouanet submitted a motion demanding that full light be thrown on the South of France railroad scandals, asking the government to prosecute all those who have been found to be implicated in them, and submit to the chamber the report of the expert who inquired into the finances of the company.

M. Ribot thereupon said it was useless to submit the expert's report, and, as to the prosecutions, he added, the work of justice had been accomplished and could not be reopened.

M. Rouanet's motion asking for an explanation as to the partiality which had been shown towards those involved in the scandals, claiming that the authorities had been afraid to prosecute them, and demanding that the minister of justice publish the documents in the case which were in his possession, was then adopted by a vote of 275 to 193.

After the adoption of this motion the ministers left the chamber of deputies in a body amid ironical Radical cheers, and went to the Elysee Palace, where they handed in their resignations to President Faure. The resignations have been accepted, and the chamber of deputies has adjourned for a week.

The ministry which has just resigned was formed on Jan. 26 by M. Ribot after the fall of the Dupuy ministry. It was composed of the following members: M. Ribot, prime minister and minister of finance; M. Hanotaux, foreign affairs; General Zurlinden, war; Admiral Besnard, marine; M. Trarieux, justice; M. Leygues, interior; M. Poincare, public instruction and worship; M. Dupuy-Dutemps, public works; M. Lebon, commerce; M. Cavaignac, agriculture; M. Chautemps, colonies.

It is stated that neither M. Ribot, M. Poincare, nor M. Leygues will accept office again.

The Figaro recently said that the following named members of the chamber of deputies who were members of the South of France railway syndicate made the profits set against their names: Jules Roche, 28,000 francs; M. Rouvier, 6,750 francs; M. Etienne, 3,000 francs; M. Delaude, 5,000 francs; M. Passy, 12,500 francs; M. LeMercier, 4,500 francs.

The Figaro added that these deputies were not prosecuted because the official accountant, M. Flory, was of the opinion that the formation of the syndicate was perfectly regular, and, therefore, its members were not guilty of corruption.

MORE ARMENIAN OUTRAGES.

Captives Burned at the Stake by the Bloodthirsty Turks.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Oct. 29.—Another massacre of Armenians, accompanied by the outraging of women, is reported to have occurred recently at Baibut, between Erzerum and Trebizond. According to the report received here a mob of about 500 Mussulmans and Lazes, the great majority of whom were armed with rifles, made an attack upon the Armenians inhabiting several villages of that vicinity and set fire to their houses and schools.

When the Armenians fled from their dwellings they were shot down as they ran and a number of men and women who were captured by the rioters were fastened to stakes and burned alive. The Armenian women who fell into the hands of the mob were outraged and mutilated. The churches were desecrated and the villages attacked were pillaged, the cattle and all the portable property of any value belonging to the Armenians being carried off by the rioters. During the disturbance 150 Armenians are said to have been killed.

The surviving villagers applied to the governor of Baibut for protection, and he, after hearing their complaint, sent three policemen to the scene of the massacre, after the slaughter was ended. The Turkish officials, it is claimed, know the ringleaders of the outbreak, but no steps have been taken to arrest them.

The Turks, it is stated, have also attacked the Armenians in the district of Gumushdagh, near Trebizond, and killed many of them.

The number of Armenians massacred at Erzengan is now said to be several hundred.

A Lynching Prevented.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 29.—Sadie Sherrier, the 12-year-old daughter of a wealthy German farmer living near Falls Church, Va., was surprised in a dense woods yesterday by Albert Hawkins, a 16-year-old Washington colored boy. The girl's cries attracted the attention of several of her schoolmates, and the negro escaped, though it is not known whether he assaulted her. He was subsequently captured and identified as the girl's assailant, and the father of the girl threatened to shoot him, but was prevented by the interference of his his son-in-law. Subsequently a mob of white people gathered and threatened to lynch him. The colored people in the neighboring settlement of Lincolnville, however, armed themselves and promised for a time to make things lively. But the negro was spirited away, and presumably is on his way to the jail at Alexandria.

Leavenworth's Apple Carnival.

LEAVENWORTH, Kan., Oct. 29.—This city is today experiencing its first whirl at the apple carnival celebration. Every building and store front down town is gorgeously decorated with apples of all sizes and colors, and the carnival colors—red, yellow and green—are conspicuous everywhere. There are thousands of visitors here, and more are arriving on every train. Business is suspended, and everybody is celebrating. Thousands of bushels of apples are being used. A street parade nearly a mile long was the feature yesterday afternoon. Last night the city was gorgeously illuminated.

Caused by a Misplaced Switch.

EASTON, Pa., Oct. 29.—A head on collision between two fast freight trains caused a serious wreck on the Lehigh Valley railroad at South Easton last night. One engine crashed into a wall on one side of the track, and Brakeman Henry Gogler, of South Bethlehem, who was riding between the engine and tank, was caught in the wreck and had both legs crushed so badly that he died at the City hospital an hour afterwards. The accident was caused by a misplaced switch. William Fegley, the switchman, has disappeared.

Official Appeal for Striking Miners.

TOPEKA, Oct. 29.—State Labor Commissioner Bird has issued the following statement regarding the strike of the coal miners at Leavenworth: "I find that instead of $2.06 per day being paid the miners, the very best average is 93½ cents a day. I ask if it is not a fair business proposition to assist the miners in retaining the eighty cent rate, so they at least may barely live, rather than suffer a cut, thereby bringing them down to below living wages and the people make up the difference by supporting them by public charity."

Cyclists Robbed by Highwaymen.

SOUTH AMBOY, N. J., Oct. 29.—Arden Post, son of Rev. George Post, of Hoboken, and another wheelman, who were riding from Asbury Park to New York, were held up and robbed by highwaymen near Applegate's hotel, at Morgan. Three men jumped from the bushes, and, placing revolvers at the heads of the bicyclists, ordered them to hold up their hands. Then the footpads took the young men's gold watches and money. The robbers secured $53 in cash and two valuable watches.

To Vote on the Eight Hour Day.

PITTSBURG, Oct. 29.—Members of trades unions affiliated with the Federated Metal Trades are discussing the question of making a demand on May 1, 1896, for an eight hour work day. All over the United States during the next thirty days a vote will be taken in every union of machinists, molders, boiler makers and iron ship builders, tin and sheet iron workers, brass workers and blacksmiths as to whether the recommendation of the Federated Metal Trades shall be carried into effect.

PRINCESS MAUD TO WED.

Her Betrothal to Prince Charles of Denmark Formally Announced.

THIS IS PURELY A LOVE MATCH.

The Fascinating Daughter of Great Britain's Coming Ruler Made Her Choice of a Life Partner Uninfluenced by Affairs of State.

COPENHAGEN, Oct. 29.—It is officially announced that Princess Maud of Wales, youngest daughter of the Prince and Princess of Wales, is betrothed to Prince Charles of Denmark. The princess was born Nov. 26, 1869, and the prince was born Aug. 3, 1872. Prince Charles is the second son of Prince Frederick, heir apparent to the throne of Denmark, whose father, the king of Denmark, is also the father of the Princess of Wales.

LONDON, Oct. 29.—The Times says, expressing the national joy at the betrothal of Princess Maud of Wales: "The fact that it is a pure love match, free from all suggestion of state influence, will add immensely to its popularity with the English people."

A recent writer in the London Figaro, speaking of the probable betrothal of one of the daughters of the Prince of Wales to a grandson of the king of Denmark, says:

"Princess Victoria, by disposition and inclination, is far more suited to be the consort of a future ruler, but she has neither the beauty, nerve or charm of Princess Maud, who, as 'Miss Mills,' has when paying private visits to intimate friends, broken the hearts of scores of susceptible youths. 'Harry,' as the royal family call Princess Maud, is a most fascinating girl, gifted with many talents, a strong will and an affectionate disposition. She is her father's favorite daughter. She is very clever with her fingers—after a boyish fashion—and her favorite pastime is stuffing and mounting birds and small animals, wood carving and the working of iron and copper. She rides, drives and skates, but, contrary to general belief, does not shoot."

To Remove the Rooster.

NEW YORK, Oct. 29.—Judge Beach, in the supreme court, handed down his decision yesterday on the application made to remove the rooster, the emblem of the State Democracy, from the official ballot. Judge Beach grants the petition, and orders the rooster to be removed. The police commissioners decided to go on with the printing of the ballots according to the decision of Judge Beach, leaving the rooster off. The printing in this manner will be continued until a decision on the appeal from Judge Beach's decision will be rendered by the general term. In either case 300,000 or 600,000 printed ballots will be destroyed.

Hotel Guests Poisoned.

HUNTINGTON, W. Va., Oct. 29.—About twenty guests of the Adelphi hotel took sick between 8 and 12 o'clock Sunday night, and now a number of them are in a critical condition. The physicians in the city were called and pronounced the sickness poison. The following is a list of the sick: R. M. Harry, of Huntington, is dangerously ill. Mrs. Harry will probably die, and L. F. Plessinger's case is considered hopeless. Four others are in a serious condition. The cause of the poisoning is at present unknown.

Big Fire in the Welsh Mountain.

LANCASTER, Pa., Oct. 29.—A disastrous fire is raging on Welsh mountain, in the vicinity of Scrattstown and Blue Ball, and thousands of acres of timberland has been burned. A number of houses occupied by whites and negroes have been consumed. Fences have been swept away, cut wood destroyed in immense quantities and thousands of trees killed. The flames can be seen at a great distance. The vicinity of the fire is the region made notorious by the exploits of Abe Bazzard and his band of Welsh mountain robbers.

England Accepts Belgium's Indemnity.

BERLIN, Oct. 29.—It is learned from Brussels that Lord Salisbury, the British prime minister, will accept the indemnity offered by Belgium for the execution in Africa by Captain Lothaire of Stokes, the British trader, who, the British claim, was hanged without warrant of civil or military law. Lord Salisbury, it is said, demands that Captain Lothaire be tried for his act in Brussels, and not in Boma, the capital of the Congo Free State.

Lilioukalani to Live in Italy.

VIENNA, Oct. 29.—Ex Queen Lilioukalani of Hawaii has purchased a site between Torbole and Malcesine, on Lake Garda, Italy, for the purpose of erecting a villa for a winter residence, and has also purchased the Castel di Pianelli, in the Italian province of Udine, for a summer residence. The ex queen will arrive in Austria in the autumn of 1896, after making a protracted stay in London.

Whitney, Congressman Perry Belmont, Postmaster Dayton, District Attorney Fellows, William Steinway, Corporation Counsel Scott, John C. Sheehan, Tammany leader; Charles R. Fairchild, State Democracy leader; Naval Officer C C Baldwin, Henry D. Purroy, Tammany; Thomas Costigan, State Democracy; Richard Croker, Tammany; Robert G. Monroe, State Democracy, Charles Steckler, Independent County Democracy; James O'Brien, O'Brien Democracy, Judge Maurice J. Power, State Democracy; ex-Mayor Thomas F. Gilroy, Tammany, Register Levy, James J. Martin, Tammany; Wheeler H. Peckham State Democracy, Oswald Ottendorfer, Herman Ridder and Herman Sulzer, German American Reform union.

Those are a few of the hundreds of representative Democrats who were officers of the meeting They illustrated harmony and Democratic purpose by forgetting all local and personal rivalries on the occasion. Senator Hill's arraignment of the Platt legislature and his magnificent exposition of Democratic doctrine fell on sympathetic ears. Since the meeting there have been numberless evidences of the continuance of the harmony it brought forth. The headquarters of the Democratic state committee have been daily crowded with visitors from Tammany hall, the Independents, State Democrats, German-American Reform union, O'Brienites, Steckleites and other local organizations. They are a unit for the state ticket.

TYPICAL CASE.

In Which, as so Often Happens, a "Change" Did Not Pay.

When the Republicans last winter managed it so as to legislate out of office James McIntyre, the capable and efficient Democratic superintendent of many years standing at the Albany county penitentiary, they put in his place Chester F. Dearstyne, a man who had had no previous experience or qualifications whatever and who was then and is still engaged in running a small cigar business. He has devoted his time to the cigar business, and has devoted next to no time at all to the penitentiary beyond a zealous devotion to the work of getting rid of as many faithful Democratic subordinates as possible

The duties of a superintendent are sufficiently arduous to require the entire time and energies of an abler man than Mr Dearstyne.

A few days since a great scandal was created by the fact that one of the long-term prisoners got into a fight with a fellow-prisoner, and at the climax drew a revolver to shoot the other What made the matter worse was the fact that the man who had the revolver is a desperate fellow, and that after he was confined in the dungeon his cell was searched by two keepers, who found in the cells files, jimmies and other tools used in jail-breaking purposes, indicating a projected jail delivery What added to the implication of official carelessness on Dearstyne's part was that the part of the prison where this desperate character is confined is the weakest in the penitentiary and was never used by McIntyre for desperate characters Stories of another desperate jail-bird having whiskey and other scandals are also rife.

THACHER'S CINCH.

The Popular Democrat Who Will Sweep All Before Him in Albany.

If any man in the State is having a cinch of the lead-pipe variety in his canvass, it is John Boyd Thacher, the ~~Democratic candidate for Mayor~~ of Albany Mr Thacher is widely known throughout the State, as he was widely discussed as a possible gubernatorial candidate last fall, and subsequently became more generally known as the manager of the State canvass of 1894.

Mr Thacher has two Republican opponents running against him, the present Mayor, Orin E Wilson, having been nominated by petition of anti-machine Republicans who cannot stomach the Barnes-Platt ring Mr Thacher would have been elected anyhow, whether his opponents are one or a dozen, but with two running against him he has a sure thing. The only betting is on such propositions as that his vote will exceed that of both of his opponents, and that Wilson, the anti-machine candidate, will be second in the race.

NO COLOR LINE.

A Letter of Congratulation That Gen. King Appreciated.

Among the letters of congratulation which have been showered upon General King, the Democratic candidate for Secretary of State, the following from the Past Commander of William Lloyd Garrison Post of colored veterans in Brooklyn is significant and interesting:

Brooklyn, October 7th, 1895.

Gen. Horatio C King.

Dear Sir and Comrade:—

I was pleased to hear of your nomination for Secretary of State and not forgetting how you honored me by making me Sr Vice Commander on your installing staff one evening, showing that color made no difference with you; you shall have my vote and a vote of a number of my friends who have pledged me their word. Hoping you will win.

Fraternally yours.

Comrade C. F McFarland.

HARMONY IN OSWEGO.

Party Differences of Long Standing Healed Up—An Amicable Settlement.

The long-standing and aggravated interparty Democratic differences at Oswego have been amicably composed. Both the factional candidates for Mayor have been withdrawn, and an acceptable compromise candidate agreed upon The result will be a united Democratic support of this satisfactory candidate and the redemption of the city of Oswego to Democratic administration

What a Strictly Independent Paper Says.

Ex-Judge Borst, of Amsterdam, the Democratic nominee for State Senator in this district, was in the village on legal business Saturday The judge is considered one of the very strongest candidates his party could have put forward. His record is clean, his abilities as a lawyer and jurist have won him a high position in the legal fraternity and his personal popularity is unbounded. Judge Borst is a native of Schoharie county, the home of his opponent, Mr Krum, and his friends in that section are legion and will give him a strong support.—St Johnsville News.

A Trick That Failed.

Republican politicians in Albany tried to steal the Populists body and breeches. They "snapped" a Populist convention, endorsed the Republican local city and county tickets, and adjourned before the legal hour of calling the convention to order had arrived. The decision is that the trick is a failure. The Populists will therefore have a blank column on local offices in Albany county.

Sample Friendship.

Col H. S. Greenleaf, ex-M. C. from Rochester, who is now slowly recovering from a severe paralytic shock, says he means to ride from his country home in Charlotte nine miles to register and vote for his friend, the Democratic candidate for Secretary of State. Col. Greenleaf is a co-Trustee of the Soldierds Home with General King and this indicates the esteem in which he holds him.

Mr. Lathrop's Answer.

Superintendent of State's Prisons Austin Lathrop has made an answer to the charges of the place-hunters against him so convincing and complete that it is generally believed the case will be dropped by default. His administration is able and business-like and needs no eulogy.

Deafness Cannot be Cured

By local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure Deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube gets inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

STILL PREPARING FOR A FIGHT.

And Arkansas' Attorney General Don't Know How to Prevent It.

LITTLE ROCK, Oct. 29.—Matters pugilistic took a sensational turn yesterday when Attorney General Kinsworthy filed information on the second division of the Pulaski county court asking for a warrant for the arrest of Robert Fitzsimmons and Martin Julian.

It develops that while arrangements have been proceeding quietly at Hot Springs for a fight to a finish between Corbett and Fitzsimmons, to take place despite the supreme court's decision, Governor Clarke has not been idle, but has himself been doing a little preparing "on the quiet." It develops that the governor has had a detective, or confidential agent, at Hot Springs all the time, and has been thoroughly posted on the every movement made by the promoters of the fight. Sunday night this detective advised the governor that arrangements had been completed to bring the fight off, and as a result Judge James W. Martin issued warrants for Fitzsimmons and Julian, which were placed in the hands of Sheriff Booker. Deputy Sheriff Heard was given charge of the matter and at once started for Texarkana, where Fitzsimmons and Julian are expected to enter the state.

The Hot Springs Athletic club has sent programs to every sporting club in the United States notifying them of the arrangements for the fight. The Iron Mountain railroad yesterday put a large force of men at work in North Little Rock building temporary side tracks. The railroad folks said that they expected a large number of special trains in a few days.

Attorney General Kinsworthy returned from Hot Springs last night. When asked by a friend what he thought of the situation at Hot Springs he replied that he believed there is going to be a fight. Asked if Governor Clarke would stop it, the attorney general said he did not see how he could.

Anti-Foreign Feeling in China.

LONDON, Oct. 29.—The news received here from Hong Kong that an outbreak against foreigners is expected at Canton seems to indicate that there has been a renewal of the widespread anti-foreign feeling. The British consul at Hankow, it is now known, was warned that an outbreak would occur at Wucheng on Sept. 12, when the soldiers were to mutiny and attack the foreigners. It appears that the Chinese braves who were ordered to disband after the war objected to doing so, and arranged to attack the foreigners, although none of the latter were to be killed. Therefore the governor of Wucheng thought it best not to carry out the disbanding decree, and thus the serious situation was tided over.

Shot While Attempting a Burglary.

CHICAGO, Oct. 29.—Anthony Strauber, a tailor, shot and fatally wounded P. L. Farrell, whom he detected breaking into his place of business at midnight. Strauber slept in the shop and was awakened by the sound of breaking glass. He secured his revolver and waited until the burglar was in the hallway through the window when he commanded him to remain still. Instead of obeying Farrell pushed through the window, and Strauber fired three times, each bullet taking effect. Farrell was taken to a hospital, where it is said he will die. He said he was hungry.

Two Killed in a Negro Riot.

SHREVEPORT, La., Oct. 29.—A bloody riot occurred among a crowd of negroes in Bossier Parish, fifteen miles from this city, in which two were killed and several injured. A negro implicated in the killing was arrested in this city. He stated that his name was Albert Hicks, and that he shot one of the negroes in self defense. The shooting occurred at a negro cabin on a plantation situated near Houghton. The cause of the trouble was a family row, which ended in a general riot in which shotguns and pistols were freely used.

Strikers Did Not Use Force.

BOISE, Idaho, Oct. 29.—Advices from the north are that the striking miners did not carry out their threat to remove men by force from the Hunter mine at Mullen. Nothing has been done by the authorities of the state further than to proceed with the organization of a militia company at Mullen.

Governor Flower's Brother-in-Law Suicides

Murder in the Second Degree.

JESSUP CITY, Oct. 29.—The jury in the case of Jennie Robinson, a young mulatto woman, who has been on trial before Justice Lippincott charged with killing Charles W. Pepper late last night brought in a verdict of guilty of murder in the second degree. Pepper was a Pullman car porter. He lived for a time with the woman and when they separated she became enraged at him and on Sept. 1 shot him dead in his room in Camden.

Jumped Three Stories to Death.

CHICAGO, Oct. 29.—Hundreds of shoppers and clerks witnessed a strange suicide last evening. Mrs. Herbert Walsh, weighing 200 pounds, jumped from the third story balcony of one of the big department stores, and was dashed to death on the floor of the rotunda.

Lieutenant Gallegos Acquitted.

HAVANA, Oct. 29.—The trial by court martial of Lieutenant Gallegos, the commander of the small Spanish guardboat Dos de Mayo, which was captured by insurgents near Santiago de Cuba on Oct. 12, has resulted in his acquittal by a vote of four to three.

Two Years for Stealing a Bicycle.

Here are some more tax book figures that show what the Republican Legislature's 3 24 tax rate means in the way of increased taxation for a few Middletown property owners:

| | State Tax '94 | State Tax '95 | Increase |
|---|---|---|---|
| Mrs E B Denton | 45 97 | 63 55 | 17 58 |
| Henry L. Beakes | 16 16 | 23 04 | 6 38 |
| Mrs S. Lipfeld | 20 43 | 28 25 | 7 82 |
| Charles Higham | 13 28 | 18 36 | 5 08 |
| Patrick Doughert, | 20 75 | 28 69 | 7 94 |

We are informed that certain Republican politicians are distributing "fake" sample ballots to Democratic voters in the hope of misleading them. The "fake" ballots have as the emblems an eagle for the Republicans and a rooster for the Democrats. It is a very small thing to do, but then Republican politicians are capable of doing small things. Democrats should bear in mind that their party emblem is a star, and to vote a straight Democratic ticket they have only to make a cross with a black lead pencil in the circle under the star. Make no other marks on the ticket or may lose your vote.

The straddle of the Republican party on the Sunday excise question, and its declaration for dry Sundays in the country and beery Sundays in New York, leads the New York Times to suggest that the motto of the campaign might be taken from the famous letter in which Artemus Ward sent notice to the country editor of his coming show: "If your people is tetotal, tell 'em Mr. Ward knows not the taste of licker, but if on the contry, they takes their tod, say Mr. Ward is as genial a feller as we ever met and the life and sole of the soshal bord."

Mr and Mrs. William D. Hunt's Golden Wedding.

The golden wedding of Mr. and Mrs. William D Hunt, which was celebrated, last evening, at their pleasant home near Ridgebury, was attended by about 200 guests. Mr. and Mrs. Hunt entertained their friends with the lavish hospitality for which they are famed and all enjoyed themselves to the utmost. Mr. and Mrs. Hunt were the recipients of hearty congratulations and countless good wishes, and very many valuable gifts, among them being a box of silver from their daughters, Mrs. Martin and Mrs. R. B. Wickham; gold headed cane and gold sugar spoon from friends in Ridgebury; a gold cake basket from Col. Dusenberry and family.

Brave Act of a Stranger

A team of horses driven by a farmer became frightened and jumped into the canal at Port Jervis, yesterday afternoon, and would have drowned but for the brave act of a young man named Harabes, a stranger who is looking for work, and who jumped into the canal and held hel l the horses' heads out of the water while he swam to the shore upon his back. He then led the horses up the bank and turned them over to the owner, who had jumped from the wagon and stood looking on, while Harabes saved his horses.

Glad to Welcome Him.

From the Newburgh Register.

It is understood that Mr. Vanamee intends to remove to Newburgh, where he will have a larger field of labor. If this should prove to be the case Newburgh will gain one of the brightest legal lights in the county of Orange, and the Register in advance extends to him what he is certain to receive from all—assurances of a hearty welcome.

Mr. Vanamee has but few equals on the Hudson River as an orator, proof of which has several times been shown hereabouts. He is an earnest believer in Democratic principles, and while Middletown may be loth to lose him Newburgh sadly needs a few such as he.

CORSETS.

In choosing your new frock, you are very likely copying one that took your fancy. On Miss Chic, who wore it, it was all you could desire, but are you sure it will suit you as well? Pretty clothes do much toward making a woman appear well dressed. Style, as we know it, consists more in the way clothes are worn than in the clothes themselves. Fashionable women have learned the knack of wearing clothes, and without perfect fitting Corsets there is no such thing as perfect fitting gowns. No woman can be taught to wear her clothes well; she learns the secret by degrees. She must be sure that her clothes and Corsets suit her, in shape, size and material, and she must never be self-conscious of them once they are on her. She must stand well, walk well and sit well If Miss Chic fits herself with one of our Z. Z. French Corsets and you do not, therein will lie the secret of the possible disappointment to you in the copied gown

WILLIAM H. CRANE,
DEMOCRATIC CANDIDATE FOR SURROGATE

We present herewith an excellent portrait of William Howe Crane, the Democratic nominee for Surrogate. Mr. Crane was born at Pennington, N. J., Feb. 6th, 1854, and is a son of the late Rev. J. T. Crane, a prominent Methodist divine, who died at Port Jervis some years ago. The subject of this sketch obtained his education at the Newark High School and at the Wyoming Seminary at Kingston, Pa., and from there he entered college in the New York University, where he stood first in the Greek class and fifth in a class of seventy-five Latin pupils.

Forced to leave college by ill health he taught two years in a country school at Lyons Farms, N J, and was afterwards professor of mathematics in the State Normal School of Mississippi two years, graduated from the Albany Law School in June, 1880, and the following year commenced the practice of law in Port Jervis, where he has been very successful.

He was Special County Judge of Orange county for three years, and proved himself a competent, painstaking, impartial and accommodating official.

Mr. Crane is a lawyer of good abilities, whose large and constantly increasing practice shows the hold he has on the confidence of the community in which he lives. There are no blots on his personal or professional character. He has betrayed no trusts, has been guilty of no mean acts, has compromised himself by no shady transactions. If elected Surrogate, every duty of that important and most responsible office will be intelligently and conscientiously performed, and the interests of widows and orphans will be carefully protected.

Mr. Crane's prospects of election grow brighter with each succeeding day. Many Republicans will vote for him as a protest against the tyranny of a boss who forced Mr. Howell's nomination and many more Republicans will vote for him because they know that public interests will be safer in his hands than in those of Mr. Howell.

HEIR TO A LARGE ESTATE.

A Former Middletowner's Great Fortune.

Mr. William Forbes, a farmer of the town of Greenville, formerly a resident of this place, has been notified by an attorney that he is one of the heirs to a large tract of land in the northern part of this State, which is valued at $2,000,000.

Mr. Forbes has been aware of the existence of this property for several years, but had not heard of the death of the owner, who resided in New South Wales until the receipt of the letter from the lawyer referred to.

THE LIVINGSTON MANOR MYSTERY.

Faith in the Murder Theory Grows Stronger—Still Investigating.

Special Correspondence of DAILY ARGUS

LIVINGSTON MANOR, Oct. 29—The search of the Ward house, Monday, by a party in charge of District Attorney Hill, and the discovering of blood spots on boards in the cellar has revived interest in the mystery of Mrs. Ward's disappearance. Young Howard Ward was questioned at some length by the District Attorney, but was evasive and reluctant in his answers. The impression prevails here, now, that the woman was murdered. Her husband says she was in feeble health and, on Monday, was sick in bed, unable to get his breakfast—apparently not in good condition to elope with a "desperado."

The District Attorney has signified his determination to do his utmost to solve the mystery and bring the guilty to justice.

Further developments are expected soon.

AN INSANE CROSSING FLAGMAN.

Chased a Switchman With a Pistol—Gave Conclusive Evidence of Dementia.

Thomas Kilcomings, a one-legged flagman at the Ontario and Western's Montgomery street crossing, has been acting queerly for the past two weeks and, this morning, became violent and chased Switchman William Devore with a revolver.

He was taken in charge and this afternoon was examined as to his sanity by Drs. Pillsbury, Fancher and Smiley. He talked of imaginary persecutions, of cyclones that were after him and gave other evidences that his reason was unsettled. The most convincing proof of hopeless dementia was, however, afforded when he persisted in trying to read the notes of his case written in Dr. Pillsbury's most crow-tracking style. Then they said, "poor fellow," and sent him on the hill.

Page's Climax Salve is truly the woman's friend, as no woman can have broken breasts or sore nipples while she uses this salve. Try it.

PARENTS AND STEP PARENTS.

A Ten-Year-Old Boy's Remarkable Family History.

The Deichler boy who had his arm cut off, Sunday, though only ten years old, has had a remarkable experience. His father died and his mother married again. Then his mother died and his step-father, with whom he continued to live, married again. Then the step-father died and the step-mother kept the lad until she died. Since then he has lived with his grandfather.

ATTEMPTED INCENDIARISM.

Port Jervis' Fire Bug Again at Work.

Port Jervis' fire bug has kept quiet for some time, but he is still alive and ready to resume business, as was shown, Sunday morning about 1 o'clock, when a baggage expressman, who was removing baggage from the Opera House, being attracted by a light near by, discovered a fire kindled in a heap of papers, shavings and wood under the stoop of the Graham building. The fire was extinguished before much damage was done.

Susquehanna Informers Sentenced to Two Years' Imprisonment.

The four Susquehanna and Western trainmen who were tried, last week, in Paterson, on a charge of robbing freight cars on their train were acquitted by the jury. The principal evidence against them was furnished by Fireman Levi Sickles and Brakeman LeBarr, who acknowledged participating in the robberies. Yesterday they were brought into court and, much to their surprise, sentenced to two years each in prison.

Wanted in Sullivan County for Forgery

Sheriff Watson, of Monticello, has sent out to the police of neighboring cities and villages, the following dispatch:

MONTICELLO, Oct 28.—Arrest C. J. Bishop for forgery. Height, 5 feet, 9 inches; sandy hair and mustache, blue eyes; wore dark suit and light overcoat; drove a bob-tailed sorrel horse and old buggy. Arrest and wire immediately.

A Hallowe'en Party.

Again on the Road.

Electric car No. 10, which was badly damaged in the collision just the other side of the park, on the Goshen line, in which Motorman Dunlevy was so badly injured, has been repaired and repainted, and is now running regularly. It is a great improvement over the old No. 10.

FRUIT FOR ALL OF US

CALIFORNIA'S PRODUCTION INCREASING AT AN ENORMOUS RATE.

In Lemons, For Instance, She Will Soon Grow Enough to Supply All American Markets—Unmatched Variety of Her Products—Things Californians Must Do.

Bananas and dates are practically all the fruits known to commerce that cannot be grown within the boundaries of California, and there is no other part of the world where such a variety of fruit culture has been developed as in the Golden State. So remarkable are the climate and soil of the region first made famous by its gold mines that in many parts thereof practically all the various fruits of the entire area can be and are grown upon one plantation. To get such a diversified cargo of fruits as can be got from one establishment in San Diego county, for instance, it would be necessary to search the continent of Europe from the North sea to the Mediterranean. Part of this cargo would be found in the British isles, part in France, part in Spain and Portugal; Italy would have to be visited; Austria would need to be ransacked, and it would probably be necessary to leave Europe and go to Smyrna in Asiatic Turkey to round up with such figs as can be had in California. And this is not all. It is possible to get practically as diversified a cargo as can be gathered from the plantation in consideration from a certain other one 700 miles farther north, and this condition is not matched anywhere in the world. It does not affect the facts in the case that not all the California fruits are as yet so well packed and prepared for shipment as some varieties are in the old world's fruit growing region; that figs, for instance, can be raised more cheaply and of better selling quality in Smyrna than in this American fruit region. It was not many years ago that the same was true of prunes, which could then be grown and put up in Germany much more profitably than in California.

Sicilian lemons, until this year, have been supposed to be in permanent control of the market, but California prunes have already taken high rank, and it is predicted that within five or ten years California lemons will be so plentiful and so cheap that the Sicilian growers will surely lose the markets of the United States, which are the best in the world, and very likely a good portion of the markets of Europe.

It is supposed by many not familiar with the facts that Florida and Louisiana, though much smaller in area than California, furnish the requisite conditions for raising as many varieties of fruit as that state. But this is not so. For some reason, although the temperature of these two states as registered by the thermometers is similar to that of California, it is impossible in either to raise the prune, the raisin grape, the foreign wine grape, the almond or the olive, while all these fruits flourish wonderfully in the Golden State. In California the fruits, the vines and the nuts of Palestine, of faraway China and Japan, of Mexico and the wonderful southern island continent of Australia, as well as those of Europe, have virtually all been acclimated, and although it is held that in some instances the flavor of the California products is less pleasing than of the same products grown in their native soil this is offset by improved flavor in other growths.

It is not alone in fruits that California displays remarkable productive power. Its grains are of first quality and enormous yield, and as to vegetables, if there is any sort that cannot be grown there, the writer has yet to hear of it, while in size and prodigality of yield the vegetables of California cannot be excelled by those of any other land, though it is said of the vegetables that, like the fruits, the taste sometimes lacking in flavor. The causes contributing to the exceptional conditions thus outlined are, of course, not duplicated elsewhere. Cold waves from the frigid regions of the pole are prevented from sweeping down upon California as they sometimes do upon Florida and Louisiana by the continuous barrier furnished by the great Rocky mountain chain which averages more than a mile in height, is 100 miles wide and is densely wooded from end to end. In speaking of this "great battlement or wind break" General N. P. Chipman of California, in a paper recently read before the California State Horticultural Society, called attention to the fact that it "lies diagonally across the lines of longitude centering at the north pole and extends 2,000 miles west to a point near the polar sea." Furthermore the Japan current flows along the California coast, and for the width of 1,000 miles its temperature has never been lower than 55 degrees above zero, while across this current the trade wind blows constantly and is of a mild temperature.

A Bank Failure.

AN INVESTIGATION DEMANDED.

A general banking business is done by the human system, because the blood deposits in its vaults whatever wealth we may gain from day to day. This wealth is laid up against "a rainy day" as a reserve fund—we're in a condition of healthy prosperity if we have laid away sufficient capital to draw upon in the hour of our greatest need. There is danger in getting thin, because it's a sign of letting down in health. To gain in blood is nearly always to gain in wholesome flesh. The odds are in favor of the germs of consumption, grip, or pneumonia, if our liver be inactive and our blood impure, or if our flesh be reduced below a healthy standard. What is required is an increase in our germ fighting strength. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery enriches the blood and makes it wholesome, stops the waste of tissue and at the same time builds up the strength. A medicine which will rid the blood of its poisons, cleanse and invigorate the great organs of the body, vitalize the system, thrill the whole being with new energy and make permanent work of it, is surely a remedy of great value. But when we make a positive statement that 98 per cent. of all cases of consumption can, if taken in the early stages of the disease, be cured with the "Discovery," it seems like a bold assertion. All Dr. Pierce asks is that you make a thorough investigation and satisfy yourself of the truth of his assertion.

By sending 21 cents in one-cent stamps to the World's Dispensary Medical Association, Buffalo, N. Y., to pay for postage and wrapping only, you can get a free book of 1000 pages profusely illustrated, bound in strong paper cover, containing the names, addresses and photographs of a large number of those cured of throat, bronchial and lung diseases, as well as of skin and scrofulous affections by the "Golden Medical Discovery." Over 680,000 copies of this great Family Doctor Book already sold in cloth binding at $1.50 each.

THE PRESIDENT COMING TO MIDDLETOWN.

The Sick May Receive Medical Services Free of Charge.

The President and members of the European and American Staff of German, English, Irish, Scandinavian and American Doctors of New York city will be at the Russell House, Middletown, on one day only. The sick and afflicted may consult them without charge during their stay.

Tuesday, October 29th,

If you are incurable they will tell you; therefore invalids must not take offence if they are rejected, as no case will be accepted unless there is a moral certainty of a cure being effected. These Doctors are graduates of the best universities of Europe and America; they are of the highest standing in the medical profession and have had unlimited experience in the treatment of all Chronic Diseases and Deformities. As the latest methods, instruments and appliances of the various schools of both the Old and the New World are familiar to and at the command of this staff of doctors, it is reasonable to believe that in ninety cases out of every hundred a cure can be effected, even when the patients have been given up as incurable by doctors who have had less experience. Do not be discouraged because your doctor cannot give you relief, or even if he tells you that you cannot get well, for it matters not what your disease may be, you can consult the doctors free, and, if curable, they will treat you; if incurable, they will give you such advice as will tend to prolong life and afford you the greatest relief.

The doctor visits Middletown one day each month. Will be at 21 Broom street, Port Jervis, Wednesday Oct. 30th. Office hours from 10:30 a. m. to 5 p. m.

THE DESTRUCTIVE TEREDO.

Piling of Wharves and Railroad Trestles Ruined by It.

The teredo is the most destructive marine animal we have. It enters the submerged part of the piling of wharves or railroad trestles and bores into the interior. When it penetrates the surface of the wood it is about the size of a pin, but increases in size, always lengthening, but never leaving any part of the hole it bores until its full mission is accomplished. In this way it stretches from the original pin hole entrance far into the interior of the wood and swells in size to the diameter of a large lead pencil. At the big end are the cutters, two clam shells that rotate from side to side and cut a smooth, round hole. The worm sometimes attains the length of ten inches.

Hundreds of such worms attack the exposed wood at the same time, and in a short time honeycomb it. However numerous they are, they never interfere with one another, and no instance is found where one borer has cut into or crossed the boring of his neighbor, though the partitions left between the borings are sometimes no thicker than a sheet of paper. Another peculiarity is that as the places of entrance are no larger than pin heads and the worms remain and do their growing inside, the wood may be almost entirely consumed inside, yet the surface appears sound and unaffected. Suddenly, without the slightest warning, the wooden pile gives way and its fellows follow in short order, and the wharf which appeared substantial is wholly ruined.

To combat the teredo many expedients have been resorted to. One is to sheathe the piling in copper. Another is to cover the surface of the wood with bread headed tacks—the rust from which spreads so as to discourage the teredo's operations. Still another method is to boil the wood in creosote under heavy steam pressure, so that the creosote saturates the fibers of the wood.

All these methods are efficacious, and the creosote process is used with perfect success in wharf and trestle building all along the gulf coast. Its cost is the chief drawback, a single stick of creosote timber costing sometimes as much as $50.—Mobile Register.

SOME PERSONAL PECULIARITIES

Eccentricities That Fasten Themselves to Men With the Firmness of Habit.

The late Senator Reagan of Texas used to do his thinking with a short string on his fingers, and this string he wound up and twisted and rolled and tied again mechanically as he followed the debate. Senator Vest always chews a quill toothpick. Carlisle used to tear paper into bits and drop the pieces one by one on the floor. The latter is a tobacco chewer and spatters when he talks, making it uncomfortable for the interviewer.

Max Freeman, the expert stage manager, pulls you by the coat lapel and then pushes you away with his thumb in the most embarrassing manner. He will suddenly pull you, and then, as if he feared you are likely to tread on him, push you away from him quite as unexpectedly.

Jim Thompson, who aspires to be the best dressed man in town, and comes pretty close to it, has been trying to raise a mustache, but has habit of fingering one side of it wears that section out, and then the whole must be shaved off and he has to begin again.

A gentleman comes down through Herald square every day who may be seen glancing at his left shoulder and flecking at it with his right hand. There isn't anything there—not even the nap of his coat, which he has thus worn away. Yet he will keep picking at it about twice a minute. Another man of my acquaintance is always glancing from one shoulder to the other, as if to see if they are yet really there. A popular Pittsburger on the square sounds your lungs with his forefinger while he talks to you—tapping away like a woodpecker on a hollow limb. Another from the same burg—a good story teller—always emphasizes his stories with liberal punches in your ribs.—New York Herald.

His Words Verified.

About 25 years ago a certain southern man brought a suit against the South Carolina railroad for damages to his property. He lost the case in the superior court, but insisted upon carrying it to the supreme court, where he represented his own cause. He began his argument by saying whimsically:

"May it please the court, there is an old French adage which says, 'A man who is his own lawyer hath a fool for a client.'"

The next week the supreme court pronounced its decision, which was adverse to the southerner. He was in Augusta at the time, but received the announcement of his second and final disappointment by means of a telegram sent him by a prominent judge, who was an intimate friend of his.

The telegram read as follows: "Judgment for defendant in error. French adage affirmed by supreme court."—Youth's Companion.

That Endeth the Lesson.

Her Mother.—Bessie, dear, I'm sorry to see my little girl show such a lack of respect for her seniors. When a neighbor comes to call on us, you should sit quietly and not speak unless you are spoken to. You do not mean to be disrespectful, I am sure, but you should think of the impression you are making on your neighbors, and you will try hereafter, I hope, to—

Bessie.—You'd better look out, mamma. You'll talk yourself to death.—Chicago Tribune.

A Memorial to Her Pet.

Lowell has on one of her roadsides a large urn, which is kept constantly filled with fresh flowers at the expense of a wealthy lady who resides in the vicinity as a memorial to her pet poodle, which was killed by the cars at that point.—Boston Herald.

Suspicion Confirmed.

One of the principal men in the bureau of printing and engraving had a somewhat peculiar experience in New York recently.

He had occasion to visit the metropolis on business, and after a stay of several days at one of the chief hotels he called for his bill. When it was given him, he tendered in payment a brand new $20 silver certificate. The clerk looked at it and then passed it back.

"What's the matter?" said the official.

"I can't take that," replied the clerk. "I don't think it's good."

"Not good!" exclaimed the official. "Not good! Why, man, it's good. I made it, myself."

"Yes," said the clerk, "so I thought."—Washington Post.

Doubtful.

"What are you thinking of, Madge?"

"Whether I would rather have you for a friend or Jack for a husband."

"Well, can't you have both?"

"That depends upon Jack."—Brooklyn Life.

Disgusted Citizen.

A man with his hat well back on his head and wearing a confident, jaunty air sauntered up to the elks' inclosure in Lincoln park yesterday morning and inspected the animals inside.

"They don't look like such terrible creatures," he said, addressing a bystander. "I don't believe they're half as savage and treacherous as the papers say they are."

"I'm satisfied to stay on this side of the fence and look at them," responded the other.

"I wouldn't be a bit afraid to get in there," rejoined the first speaker. "The trouble is that when a man is afraid of the animals they know it as well as he does, and they go for him. Animals ain't fools. If I had any business with these elks, I wouldn't hesitate a minute. I'd get right over there and make them understand their place. I wouldn't be cross, but I'd show 'em who was master."

He climbed to the top of the fence and leaned over.

Two big elks were lying down on the ground about 20 feet away.

"Get up," he called out, fixing his eye on one of them. "Get up and come here, you lazy brute!"

He shook the fence as he spoke and the two animals jumped to their feet and came at him like a shot.

They struck the fence with a terrific bang, and the man on top, taken by surprise, lost his hold, fell back on the outside and rolled over and over in the dirt.

He gathered himself up, brushed the dirt from his clothes, picked up his hat, placed it carefully on his head, pulled the brim down over his forehead and started away.

"That settles it," he said. "I'm a member of the Order of Elks in good standing, but I'm going to have the name changed, by jimminy, or I'm going to pull out of it!"—Chicago Tribune.

There Were Others.

"Look!" she almost shrieked in her rage as she shook the paper under his face. "Oh, villain, villain, I have found you out in all your base perfidy."

"I—I beg your pardon," said the young man, "but I'm afraid I don't quite follow you."

"This is your letter to me?"

"Yes."

"It breathes the tenderest affection, doesn't it?"

"I flatter myself," he answered, with a complacent bow, "that it does."

"It is ardent in its protestations of undying devotion, isn't it?"

"If it was as I intended it, there's no doubt about its being so."

"Look—look here," she hissed, "and then turn your face in shame! Here are the unmistakable traces of carbon paper. This letter was manifolded!"—Washington Star.

REPUBLICANIZING THE STATE HOSPITALS.

Significance of the Appointment of Messrs. Carson and Tompkins to succeed Messrs. Vanamee and Clark as Trustees of the Middletown State Hospital—Partisan Advantage, Not the Public Interests, Sought in the New Appointments—The Record of the Deposed Trustees.

The appointment by Gov. Morton of Messrs. James B. Carson and Edward D Tompkins to succeed William Vanamee, E-q , and Hon. William H. Clark as Trustees of the Middletown State Hospital marks the beginning of a new era in the control of the State's charitable institutions. Heretofore they have been non-political in their management. During the administrations of Democratic governors no Republican member of the official boards of any of the State hospitals was supplanted by a Democrat and in this respect Govs. Cleveland, Hill and Flower followed the wise policy of Gov. Cornell and other Republican governors who recognized the sound principle that politics should have no place in the management of the asylums provided by the State for the care and treatment of the unfortunates and who, therefore, made no distinctions as to politics in appointing trustees and managers of the State's charitable institutions. As a result of this broad and liberal policy the control of the State Hospitals was free from even a trace of politics. Partisan advantage in their management was never thought of or desired and Democratic Boards of Trustees, considering only fitness and the best interests of the institutions under their charge, filled the best offices in their gift with Republicans and Republican Boards did the same with Democrats.

Under latter day Republican rule all this is to be changed and the policy is evidently to Republicanize the State's charitable institutions as rapidly as opportunity offers.

Personally, the new trustees are unexceptionable. Mr. Carson is a life-long resident of Middletown, and a successful and public-spirited business man who is respected and esteemed by all.

Mr. Tompkins has been a resident of Middletown for a number of years, has been the very successful manager of important business interests and has won the good opinion of all who have had social or business relations with him.

The fact remains, however, that high as are the personal and business characters of the newly appointed Trustees, they would never have been named to succeed Messrs. Vanamee and Clark had not political advantage rather than the best interests of the State Hospital, been considered in making the appointments. With the exception of Mr. Grinnell Burt, President of the Board, Mr. Vanamee has served as Trustee longer than any member of the Board. He has always given freely of his time to the public service, and as the legal adviser of the Board has solved for it well and wisely the countless legal questions that have arisen in connection with the management of the hospital and the custody of its inmates. Mr. Clark has been equally zealous in the discharge of official duty during the many years that he has been a member of the Board. His most important services have been rendered as a member of the Farm and Building Committee, and his practical knowledge has been of great value to the institution and has saved it many thousands of dollars. A very recent case in point was in connection with the plans for the barn now in process of erection. As prepared in the State Architect's office they seemed to Mr. Clark to be defective, and, believing that a building erected in accordance with them would be insecure, he went to Albany and pointed out what he deemed to be the defects in the plans. State Architect Perry saw at once that a mistake had been made, and the plans were changed in accordance with Mr. Clark's suggestions. This is but one of many ways in which Mr. Clark's varied practical knowledge and sound judgment have been of great value to the State.

Had it not been that the Republican State administration hopes to obtain a partisan advantage by making the State hospitals a part of the Republican machine, Messrs Vanamee and Clark would never have been dropped from the Board of Trustees of the Mid Hetown State Hospital.

UNIONVILLE.

Death of Joseph Rogers—The Silk Mill Prospering—Chicken and Waffles—A Drouth of Half a Century Ago—Taking the Gold Cure—Autumnal Service—Other Notes.

Correspondence ARGUS and MERCURY.

—Joseph Rogers, aged about nineteen years, was buried at Stillwater, N. J., Monday of last week. Previous to the burning of the Oliphant silk mill in this place, last February, Joseph Rogers was a robust, healthy lad, but he overexerted himself in fighting the fire on that occasion and was soon taken with hemorrhages of the lungs, which became so frequent as to alarm his friends, but under the skilful treatment of Dr. E. A. Nugent, his uncle, with whom he lived, he grew apparently better, and about five weeks ago entered Coleman's Business College at Newark, N. J. After being there a few days his difficulty reappeared and Dr. Nugent was summoned to his bedside, but could do nothing for him and a telegram was received here announcing his death. "Joe" was a bright, genial young man and his sudden death casts a gloom over the younger members of the community with whom he was a general favorite. This is one of the results of the February fire not covered by insurance.

—The Minisink Silk Co has its new seventy horse power boiler set and steam connections will be made this week. Messrs. Toner & Prescott, the lessees, are doing a rushing business and will commence the erection of a large dye house at once. Building continues and the future of Unionville is tinged with brightness.

—The Ladies' Aid Society connected with the M. E Church will have a chicken and waffle sociable at the house of J. O. Austin, on Friday evening, Nov. 1st. If stormy the next evening, to which the public is cordially invited. Supper from 7 to 9:30 o'clock. There will be lots of room and plenty to eat, so let all turn out. Supper twenty-five cents.

—Young people are still getting married, evidencing the fact that the experience of former generations has no effect on the present.

—The present drouth is very severe, but I am informed by a gentleman who is over eighty years of age, that in 1845 he was compelled to haul water a half mile for stock and family use from June 20 to Dec. So we are inclined to think with Soloman that 'there is nothing new under the sun."

—The political sea is unruffled by the approaching election, and the solitary candidate who generally, about this time, paddles his own canoe, has not yet disturbed the bosom of the deep in this vicinity, but political love letters burden the mails.

—The gold cure fad is just now in full operation in this community, and several of our citizens are being made over. Upon the whole the movement is a healthy one and let the good work go on.

—Mrs. S. J. Oakley, an aged resident of Otisville, is visiting friends in this place.

—The autumnal service, last Sunday, in the M. E. Church, under the management of Mr. Richard Hargraves, of the Sunday School, was a gratifying success. The children all acquitted themselves in a very creditable manner.

—The matter of starting a co-operative feed and coal establishment in this place has been suggested.

—The good business man, when he comes in a community, will lose no time in identifying himself with any enterprise calculated to advance the interests of the place

SULLIVAN COUNNY C. E. UNION

Fifth Semi-Annual Convention at Bloomingburgh—Large Attendance and Interesting and Profitable Exercises.

From Our Bloomingburgh Correspondent.

The fifth semi-annual convention of the Sullivan County C. E. Union was held at the Reformed Church in Bloomingburgh, Oct. 25th. Delegates were present from nearly every town in the county. The church, decorated by the ladies, presented an attractive appearance. Underneath the coat of arms of the Reformed Church was the word "welcome," and below that the monogram "C. E."

After the opening exercises, which were led by Rev. J. R. Morris, of Hurleyville, Miss Gertrude Beakes, President of the Bloomingburgh Society, gave an address of welcome, which was responded to by Rev. L. W. Hones, of Roscoe, the President of the Union.

Mrs. T. M. Low then sang a solo, which was followed by the principal address of the morning, by Rev. D. S. Harris, of Wurtsboro, on "The future of missions."

The afternoon session opened with devotional exercises, led by A. C. Wells, of DeBruce. Rev. J. C. Coddington then gave an address on "success," which was followed by a paper from Mrs. O B. Low on "home missions," Rev. J. R. Morris gave an able temperance address, and Miss Bessie Strong read a well written paper on "Success and how to obtain it."

The question box was open by Rev. J. L. Stillwell, after which Rev. Mr. Mann, of Scotchtown, spoke in behalf of missions. An interesting feature of this session was the singing of a quartette by four ladies of the Bloomingburgh choir—Mrs. T. M. Low, Miss Gertrude Beakes, Miss S. D. Bull, Miss Kate Sherer.

The speaker for the evening was Rev. A. D. W. Mason, of Brooklyn, who held the close attention of his audience an hour with an address on missions.

The music for the evening was by the church choir. There was also a solo by Mrs. Clapham.

The Saturday morning session was principally taken up with business of the society. The devotional exercises were led by Mr. Woolsey, and the consecration meeting by the pastor of the church. The convention adjourned Saturday morning, at 10:30, the congregation singing with joined hands, the hymn, 'Blest be the tie,"

The officers of the society for the insuing year are as follows:

President—L. W. Hones
Vice-President—Rev. J. R. Morris.
Recording Secretary—Mrs. J. B Low.
Corresponding Secretary—G. S. Woolsey.
Treasurer—Miss Bessie Strong.

T. M. Low has received the appointment of District Secretary from the State Secretary.

Trainmaster Dowe to Be Superintendent of the Erie's Jefferson Branch.

Trainmaster George W. Dowe, of Port Jervis, has been appointed Superintendent of the Erie's Jefferson branch. He will be succeeded by Mr. Tibbets, formerly Mechanical Engineer of the Eastern Division.

Mr Dowe is one of the most popular officials on the Eastern Division. He is respected by his subordinates with whom he has been thrown in daily contact for many years and, as his promotions shows, enjoys the confidence of his superior officers. We have already heard many expressions of regret that he is to leave the Eastern Division.

A FINE ENTERTAINMENT.

Miss Jean Stuart Brown's Reading for the Benefit of Thrall Hospital.

Miss Jean Stuart Brown's reading at the Assembly Rooms, Friday evening, Nov. 1st, for the benefit of Thrall Hospital, will be an occasion of no little interest to those who like to hear good authors read by a gifted elocutionist. The programme of the evening will be pleasantly varied by music by Miss Bertha Morgans and the Banjo Quartette.

Miss Brown comes very highly recommended. Rev. J. H. Rylance, D. D., LL. D., rector of St. Mark's Church, New York city, says of her:

Miss Jean Stuart Brown is an artist of high intelligence and cultivated taste, with elocutionary powers of a very rare order. It is a delight to sit and hear her fine interpretations of our favorite authors; she brings out shades of meaning and of feeling never detected before.

Assaulted And Robbed in Washingtonville.
